The Peer of Any of Them.

The Lebanon enterprise grows absolutely humorous in treating the question of the alleged candidary of Andrew Jackson Gross for Congress. It makes much fun of what it calls the "posterior portion" of his namo and of the "paucity of his many qualifications" for the office. The Enterprise must admit, however, that Gross is the peer of its present representative in every particular, and will aise up pretty well with any other man in the Fourth district, which is not plethoric of Congressional timber since Gov. Knott has retired.—Stanford Journat,

JACK AND JILL-There are various JACK AND JILL—accounts as to how the man got Into the moon. A common now with us is that he was banished for having been detected by Moses in the act of gathering atticks on the Sabbath. In German legend he committed the same offense, and was given the atternative of being scorched in the same the same offense, and was given the atternative of being scorched in the same where the same becomes the two clitidren familiarly known as Jack and Jill, who were kidnapped by the moon. There we see them stand with bucket or pole across their alroudlens, falling away, one after the other, as the moon wanes, and so it is that "Jack fell down and broke bis crown, And Jill came tunabling after."
Now, just assure as the moon wanes, just as our grees disaster wane under the influence of S. S. S. The difference being, however, that Jack and Jill never being, however, that Jack and Jill never being, being complete and permanant.
